Hot and Heavy Grown Up by Durkan

Enhanced Resilient Tile The registered, embossed surface design and high definition wood visuals of Grown Up ERT provide the most realistic texture and distinctive graining of any hard surface product on the market today. Available in 9”x59” planks, this over-sized loose-lay ERT can be installed without adhesives or underlayments and be ready for immediate occupancy. The overall thickness of the planks and inner core offer superior acoustical benefits, while its ability to transition seamlessly to our carpet tile products maximizes design versatility. Grown Up is cutting edge, boasting a construction made of 8% rapidly renewable, bio-based content that avoids harmful phthalates.

About Durkan
